

LIVING HOPE^{INT}

RESCUING CHILDREN
TRAINING LEADERS

OUR MISSION

To rescue children, train leaders and reach the nations with the Gospel.

OUR VISION

A world where every person has the opportunity to experience joy and reach their God-given potential, regardless of their location or circumstance, thanks to the power of hope found only in the Gospel of Jesus Christ.

1985

Jerry, and soon after, Susy McNally began their missionary career evangelizing and planting churches in the mountains of Mexico.

1994

Juan was the first street child the McNallys encountered in 1994. Juan lived on the streets in a gang of children. There are an estimated 100,000 at-risk kids in Mexico.

Living Hope International was founded in 1994. The Spanish name of the youth home is Esperanza Viva, meaning "Living Hope."

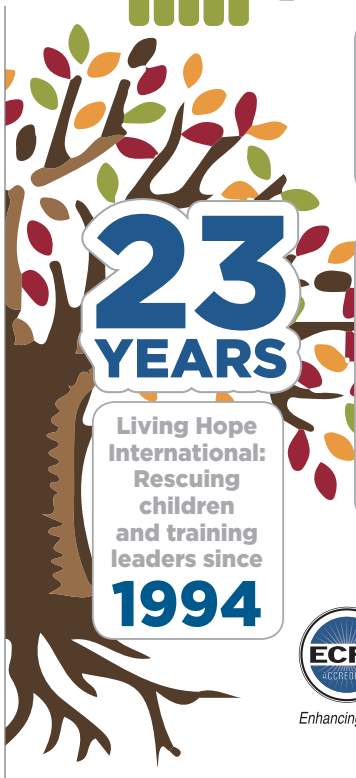

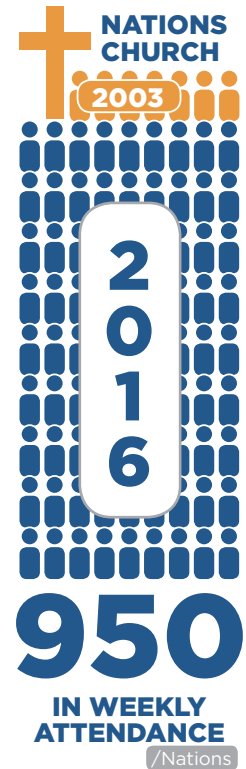

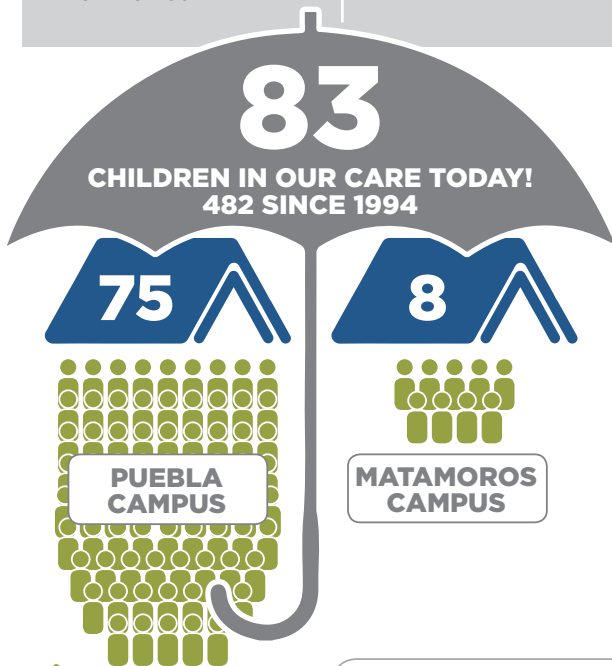

2011

The first children's dormitory was dedicated in 2011. The vision for the 11-acre Puebla campus is to house 288 children.

2017

The goal is to move into the new school in 2017. It will have a capacity for 419 students. To learn the current status of this project, visit our website today!
