Board Members will focus on the development of broad policies that govern the implementation of institutional plans and purposes. This role is separate and distinct from the role of the administrator, who determines the means of implementation.

LHI elects a board of directors that consists of not only LHI personnel, but also pastors, business people, educational leaders and others who have been involved in relevant endeavors and/or organizations. Those selected to serve on the board must demonstrate Christian character and enthusiastically support the work of LHI.

* Denotes independent board members.
